

Let's put aside all these ridiculous rumors and put a stop to the just as crazy emails I have been getting from IU basketball fans.

I support Mike Davis. Without reserve.

As much as anyone I would like to see us back in the NCAA Finals where Coach Davis took us a few short years ago.

I think Coach Davis shot for the moon in his recruiting a little too much and saw his best incoming players going to the NBA. I think now he has adjusted his recruiting approach and I LOVE the nucleus of freshman that we have and the progress they made over the course of the season.

Good job Coach Davis.

Go IU!
