

Its always a great feeling when a movie Im involved with is more than just a movie, its a statement. Akeelah and the Bee is such a movie. Its a movie about learning to believe in yourself, realizing that obstacles can be opportunities and that with perserverance and hard work, anyone can reach their goals.

People say there arent enough family movies. Akeelah and the Bee is an amazing family movie. Its entertaining for anyone from 5 to 105. Its a movie that you can take young kids to and have good time, or somehow bribe your older kids to go with you and have a good time.

You will love it.

The producers of the movies believe so strongly in the movie, we put together a program so that teachers around the country can see the movie for free.

We also put together a program that encourages schools and groups to go see the movie as a group. We believe in the impact of this movie so much, that we are giving away $100,000 dollars to the school that gets the greatest number of people to see the movie . You can go HERE for details, on how your school can win the $100k

See the movie. I promise, you, your kids, your date, your spouse will love it !
